Religion-in-Life Receives Big Response This Year

DR. JOSEPH R. SIZOO, chairman of the Faculty Committee on Religious Life, has stated this year's Religion-In-Life Week received the greatest response since its inception nine years ago.

Highlighting the week were two new features. Services of thanksgiving were held at Catholic, Jewish and Protestant churches in the community. Also, inter-group discussion meetings were held for independents who did not participate in the Monday night Greek activities. According to Dr. Sizoo, more students participated in the program this year than ever before.

Questions, Answers
The Skeptics' Hour was moderated by Professor Fred S. Tupper, Tuesday, November 22. Speakers were the Reverend Lawrence D. Folkner who represented the Protestant point of view; Rabbi David H. Panitz, who explained the Jewish position; and the Reverend Gerald T. Kennedy, who spoke on the Catholic position.

The program concluded Wednesday when Dr. Theodore H. Palmquist spoke at University Chapel. Gretchen Arnold was chairman of the Religion-In-Life Committee of the Religious Council.

Christmas Party
For its next project the Religious Council will sponsor a Christmas party for kindergarten and first grade students of Grant School. The party will be held December 13 at 3 p.m. in Building O.

Group Sings Sixth Messiah in Lisner

OVER 200 VOICES will blend in the sixth annual Colonial Series presentation of the Messiah Chorus in Lisner Auditorium Monday, December 12, at 8:30 p.m.

The University's Men and Women's Glee Clubs, the Glee Club Alumni and the Traveling Troubadours will be joined by the Air Force Singing Sergeants, the Eldbrook Methodist Church Choir of Chevy Chase, Md., and the Bradbury Heights First Methodist Church Choir.

Air Force Capt. Robert L. Landers will lead the chorus. Orchestral accompaniment will be provided by the 90-piece Air Force Symphony Orchestra also under the direction of Capt. Landers.

Soloists will be Master Sergeant Ivan Genuchi, tenor, and Staff Sergeant Howard Huff, bass, both members of the Singing Sergeants.

The soprano solo will be sung by Miss Marion Whitcomb, a graduate cum laude of the University of Miami, Florida. Miss Whitcomb is a soloist at the Eldbrook Methodist Church. Miss Linda Welsh-brod, contralto and Miss Washington of 1954, will sing the alto solo.

The Messiah Chorus has been holding practice each Tuesday and Thursday night from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. under the direction of Dr. Robert H. Harmon, associate University physician.

DUE TO THE pressure of time and the resulting inability of some students to get their pictures into the HATCHET on the original date of Dec. 3, and the holdup at the Public Relations Office because some students have not yet turned in their information to the Office, the "Who's Who" section of the HATCHET will appear in the next issue, December 13.

All students who have not yet turned in their blanks to P.R.O. or their pictures to the HATCHET are asked to do so this week so that we may give as complete a representation as possible.

Linton Speaks Here Tonight

DR. CALVIN D. LINTON, assistant dean of the Columbian College, will speak at the second in a series of "Last Lectures" tonight at 8 p.m. in Lisner Lounge.

The series is sponsored by Mortarboard, senior women's honorary, and is open to the public.

Dr. Linton, also a professor of English literature, has "a very interesting manner of speaking," says Lucy Anstine, chairman of the series. According to Miss Anstine there are two levels to his speaking, the first, dealing with his knowledge of the topic he is discussing; the second with the fact that he speaks so entertainingly.

The purpose of the "Last Lecture" series is to encourage the growth of intellectual activities at the University. Well-known professors participating in the series present the lecture they would deliver at their last appearance before a class.

Take And Read

• THE NEW PICTORIAL issue of the University Bulletin contains much worthwhile reading matter for the student, as well as all members of the University family.

In an introductory message, President Marvin remarks, "In demanding times such as these, often we cannot keep up with the lives of our friends or the growth of the institutions of which we are a part without making special effort." The new View Book greatly reduces the effort involved by presenting the history of the University during the last fifty years. Picture sections for 1905, 1930 and today are of special interest to the casual reader.

We hope, however, that the majority of our "family" will not be reading the book casually. A careful reading will teach more about what our University stands for than could be gained from months of investigation. The people who have worked on the book during the past months have done the research and presented the story in an easily assimilated form.

The underlying theme for the View Book, seen in the pictures and print for each section but most clearly in the book as a whole, is the progress which has accompanied the University as it ages.

A single page opens our eyes to a vast frontier—tomorrow. Since the announcement of the George Washington Urban Renewal Project, we have even greater reason to be both proud and hopeful. The project opens the door for tremendous extension of the growth which has been experienced in the last decades.

Letters sent from the President's office to alumni, students and faculty heralded the coming of the View Book last week. Soon the copies will be in their owners' hands and we recommend that they stay there a while. Look at the pictures first, if you must, then take time out to KNOW your University.

Council Capers

by Doris Rosenberg

• HATCHET POLICIES and methods were the main topic of discussion at last Wednesday's Student Council meeting.

Many mistaken ideas concerning the HATCHET were cleared up as editors Barbara Stuart, Mary Lou Bishop and Bill Hix answered the many questions put to them by Council members.

Dick Sincoff, chairman of the subcommittee concerned with the HATCHET, began the discussion by asking just how correct the facts in the HATCHET are. He was answered that they are as true and factual as possible. Most of the errors that do appear, Miss Stuart said, are because quite a few stories (advance stories) must be written ahead of the events themselves, and sometimes last-minute changes are made in the program, too late to be included in the HATCHET.

The size and placing of the stories also received a great deal of attention. The editors explained that in 99 per cent of the cases stories which are long and prominent are the stories that affect most of the students; the other big stories generally serve to inform and interest night and part-time students.

Several Council members raised the question of how organizations and committees could get articles published in the HATCHET. It was explained that notes or short articles should be submitted to News Editor, Ernest Auerbach, or placed in his box in the HATCHET office, with the name and address of someone to see "for further information." When the article is deemed worthy of more attention, a reporter will get in touch with the proper persons and write a bigger story.

Earlier in the meeting, several important announcements were made. The financial report of Homecoming showed a net profit of $344, with $4843 taken in and $4497 for expenses.

Kathy Denver, comptroller of the Student Council, announced that there will be a series of budget hearings with the various campus organizations tomorrow and Thursday in the office of Women's Activities from 2 to 4 p.m. The purpose of these meetings, each of which is expected to last approximately twenty minutes, is to discuss the budgets of those organizations which have budgets under Student Council supervision.

It was also announced that one co-chairman for the Student Enrollment Committee is needed. Petitions are now being accepted for this position by the Student Council.

Panhel Prexy Wants To Teach, Guides Group With Experience

by Elva Schroebel

• WHEN ELLIE READY picked up the gavel of the president of the Panhellenic Council, she was just as her name implies, ready.

"I was really very lucky. I just happened to be elected to Panhel in the years when the offices rotated to us," she says. Thus, as a pledge, she was president of Junior Panhel, the presidency having rotated to her sorority, Sigma Kappa. Next year she was sent to Senior Panhellenic where she held the office of secretary, then vice-president, with all the attendant duties of handling the Goat Show and the Panhel Sing, and, finally, this year she assumed the office of president.

Whether she was lucky or not, her extensive background has enabled her to handle the tremendous job with efficiency, born of thorough understanding of the workings of this important organization.

In connection with her office, Ellie conducts numerous workshops to foster Panhellenic spirit and she is always on the watch for ways to improve the Council. This year, in order to qualify for a National Panhellenic Award, the Council is adopting, for a community serving project, the advising of Y-Teen Clubs by acting as liaison between the YMCA and any students on campus interested in working with the clubs.

Student Life Committee

As Panhel president, Ellie is an automatic member of the Student Life Committee.

With all her heavy responsibilities in Panhel, Ellie still found time to serve as pledge trainer, social chairman and rush chairman of Sigma Kappa. She counts as one of her most exciting college experiences being sent to the 1954 annual convention in Miami, Florida. "I was amazed by what they could accomplish in five days," she says.

Ellie has been a Big Sis and has served on the Dorm Council, but has pretty much limited herself to sorority work. "I don't think I could do a great many things and do them well. I'd rather do a few things."

Student Leader

And the "few things" she's done, she's done well enough to be recognized as someone especially outstanding on campus.

Speaking of universities, Ellie is very glad she came here. "I like its uniqueness. It's a wonderful school where you can meet all kinds of people from all kinds of environments. You have a chance to be an individual and to develop your abilities."

However, her choice of school was quite by chance. "I practically pulled it out of a hat," she says. Actually, she happened on a pamphlet of the University in her high school in Ossining, New York, applied, sight unseen, and came here.

Teach First Grade

After June graduation, Ellie plans to teach first grade. "I just love little kids," she says with a sparkle in her brown eyes. "You have something different every day with them." But whatever comes up, Ellie's sure to be ready.

Shupe Prefers Queen Selection By Judges

by Doris Rosenberg

• A REPORT HAS been made on this year's method of selecting the Homecoming Queen, by Student Council Advocate Tony Shupe.

Mr. Shupe, who was also co-chairman of the 1954 Homecoming Weekend, termed the popular election a popularity contest and "a political football." As evidence of this political angle, he reported seeing a great many activities books being passed among the students and said that he saw influencing going on. Also, the voting could hardly be called representative, as only 584 votes, out of a possible 9,000, were actually cast.

Mr. Shupe stated however, that the Queen received more than one-third of all the votes cast, so her victory was a very solid one. Mr. Shupe said that this was the first time he had ever heard of selecting a Homecoming Queen by popular vote, either at this or at any other University.

'Fairer' Method Needed

In Mr. Shupe's opinion, last year's method, but more fairly and efficiently executed, would be much better. By "fairness" Mr. Shupe said he meant that the preliminary judges of last year were faculty members and, as such, may have been prejudiced or influenced by previous contacts with certain candidates. Mr. Shupe said that he believes very strongly that all the judges should be selected from outside the University. Outstanding alumni such as Judge Kirkland or Andy Davis would make excellent judges, in all probability, he said. He continued that, as alumni, they would know what to look for in a Homecoming Queen, and yet could take an objective and unprejudiced view.

The Girl

The Homecoming Queen is supposed to be a representative girl of the whole University, in all phases of University life—"THE girl in the University," he said.

Christmas Tree

• MR. SAM MAWHOOD, president of the Engineers Council, will present a Christmas tree to Dean Colclough, who will accept on behalf of the University, at the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony at 5:15 p.m. on December 12, on Lister Terrace.

The tree is set up and decorated by the School of Engineering, which is co-sponsor with the Department of Religion for the ceremony. Dr. Sizoo is in charge of the program, which features the reading of the Christmas Carol. The Traveling Troubadours, under the direction of Dr. Harmon, will sing Christmas carols.

She should be chosen, not on the basis of one or two traits, but on a balance of many—activities, looks, personality and everything else, according to Mr. Shupe. And the basic preliminary requirement for choosing the proper Queen is "the proper selection of judges," he added.

Mr. Shupe said that it was not the 1955 Queen herself that he objected to, that he had voted for Suzanne Bregman himself, but rather the manner in which she was selected.

• MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—(ACP) Augsburg College officials had to reach off campus to find a solution to a housing problem. Faced with a surplus of 40 girls who could not be accommodated in dormitories, the college rented the entire fourth floor of a nearby hotel.

Regular residents of the hotel won't be seeing much of the young ladies, however. The fourth floor of the building will be closed off from the main part of the hotel with keys issued only to the girls. So, for the boy friends, it'll be just like a dormitory.

Foggy Bottom

by Hester Heale

• WHAT HO, LADIES and gentlemen—prepared for your usual harrowing trek around Foggy Bottom? This is pledge formal season, and all co-eds are busy with sorority Christmas parties, formals, etc. Fraternities are coming through with many a gay party and dance.

The first thing I want to tell you about this week is the Delta Zeta Rose Formal, held this year at the Cloud Room of the National Airport a few days ago. The DZ's presented the traditional "Dream Girl" award to Tilli Mosesso, for her outstanding service to the Chapter. Mildred Adams and Carolyn Jordan, DZ pledges, were introduced to the guests and received rose nosegays. Before the dance, pledges and actives enjoyed a cocktail party at the home of Irene Schuler.

The SPE's "Circus Party" on Saturday last featured many delightful contests (such as the knee-judging contest, won by "Flask" Uphoff) and much fun. Partying it up with gusto were Loydell Jones, KKG, and John Posts and Joe Hinec, PIKA, with Ed Jaffee and Norm Cohen, AE-PI, Chis McAvoy, SX, Ellen Raley, Chi O, Tony Ketcham, SAE and Roy Dennis, KS. All were on hand to investigate an invitation from OD Mu. Dell Brown, ZTA, won the prize for the balloon-blowing contest, which was (appropriately enough) a balloon in her favorite color. One particularly spectacular beer mug, measuring one foot high, fascinated bestreamed Betsy Day, ZTA, and the evening went on and on . . .

On November 19, the Kappas

held their pledge formal in the Washington Club at Dupont Circle. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Kappa's winning Goat Show skit—with the pledges in formals. Some of those present were proud pledge-trainer Bev Alexander with Lou Donfrio, SX; Sharon Doran with Buzzy Ciriello, SAE; Jeannie Barnes with Tom Smith, DTD; Sally Herndon with Jack McManus; Ailcey Jones with Bernie Kovach; Punky Humphrey with Joe Barish and Julie Cairns with John Henderson.

Two marriages during the Thanksgiving holidays were announced by Kappa: alum Lala Mathers was married, also active Janice Krug to Robert Riley.

Sigma Chi entertained Sigma Kappa at an informal get-together on Saturday afternoon, for which John Allen rushed to the library to get SK's Ellie Ready and Plum Synon. A rousing game of "Fizz-Buzz-Bang" (you figure it out) was ably led by Dave Liddick and Ray Looney, among other events.

By the way, if you have any trouble with District policemen about traffic tickets, look up Jean Jablonsky, SK. She stoutheartedly talked her way out of a $13 ticket (for which she paid only $8), with the help of SK's Marilyn Greer and Fay Callaway!

Harriet Stern and Bob Marx announced their engagement at Thanksgiving. And, by the way, Helen Niles—what happened to Bob Estes' SAE pin???

The SN-Chi O spaghetti dinner and exchange Sunday afternoon were a rollicking success, sparked by group singing, dancing, etc. Toodle.

Dorm Gives Tea; Serves Wassail

• APPROXIMATELY 80 faculty members will attend the Strong Hall faculty tea tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 5 p.m. in the dormitory lounge.

President and Mrs. Cloyd H. Marvin will be the guests of honor.

Mrs. Marvin, Miss Elizabeth Burtner, associate professor of physical education for women; Mrs. Wilbur J. Carr and Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., members of the Board of Trustees of the University; Mrs. O. S. Colclough, wife of the Dean of Faculties; and Miss Frances Kirkpatrick, professor of home economics, have been invited to pour the traditional hot wassail.

The tea is sponsored annually by the Strong Hall Council.

Official hostesses will be Beverly Borden, Carolyn Cowdin, Peggy Nichols, Jeanne Hutchinson, Jane O'Brien, Malo Owen, Mary Metzel, Joan Drew, Sarah Jane Miller, Terry Upshaw and Nancy Wilson.

Play Features Tears, Laughs, Teddy Bear

• A WOMAN WHO inherits ten million dollars and immediately tints her hair blue and starts carrying a teddy bear around with her is the central character in "The Curious Savage" which will be presented by the University Players on next Friday and Saturday nights.

The play, which was described by the New York News as "an evening of gentle laughter, with a teardrop or two, plus a dash of wisdom," is the story of Ethel Savage. Mrs. Savage always had to cater to her husband, but when he died, leaving her ten million dollars, she gets to do all the foolish things she always wanted to do: Besides the blue hair and the teddy bear, she also takes up ballet and writes and finances a terrrible play for Broadway production.

She helps other people enjoy harmless fun. She even establishes a "Happiness Fund." All this time Mrs. Savage is having a lot of fun herself. But trouble is looming on the horizon in the persons of her three stepchildren. They're afraid there won't be any money left for them after Mrs. Savage gets through having all her fun.

In the hope they they can eventually have her declared legally insane, her stepchildren send her to a rest home called "The Cloisters." Mrs. Savage finds many new friends at "The Cloisters." They strengthen her belief that people have a right to be different and to do what they want to.

THE GIFT HORSE

Today's column is about Christmas gift suggestions, and I suppose you think I'll begin by suggesting Philip Morris. Well, the joke's on you. I'll do no such thing. Why should I? Anyone with two brains to knock together knows that Philip Morris makes an absolutely smashing Christmas gift. Only a poor afflicted soul with atrophied taste buds needs to be told about the new Philip Morris; its bracing flavor; its freshness, lightness, pleasantness, gentleness; its truth, its beauty, its brotherliness in this discordant world of ours. So why should I waste time telling you what you already know?

Let us, instead, turn to less obvious gift suggestions. Here's one I bet you never thought of:

Christmas is the best time of year, but it is also the beginning of winter. How about a gift that reminds one that though winter has come, spring is not far behind? I refer, of course, to Easter chicks. (Similarly, on Easter one can give Christmas chicks.)

Next, we take up the problem, common to all undergraduates, of trying to buy gifts when you have no money. To this dilemma I say—Faugh! It is not the price of the gift that counts; it is the sentiment behind it.

Take, for example, the case of Outerbridge Sigafos. Outerbridge, a sophomore, finding himself without funds last Christmas, gave his girl a bottle of good clear water and a nice smooth rock, attaching this touching message to the gift:

Here's some water
And here's a rock,
I love you, daughter,
Around the clock.

And the whole delightful gift cost Outerbridge less than a penny!

I am compelled to report, however, that Outerbridge's girl did not receive these offerings in the spirit in which they were tendered. In fact, she flew into a fit of pique, smashed the bottle on the rock and stabbed Outerbridge with the jagged edge. But the experience was not without value for Outerbridge. First, he discovered that the girl was not his type at all. Second, he learned how to make a tourniquet.

But I digress. Let's examine now a common complaint of Christmas shoppers: "What do you get for someone who has everything?"

To this I reply, "Does he?" Does he, for instance, have a unicycle? A sled dog? A serf? A burnoose? A hairball? A bung starter? (The bung starter, incidentally, was invented by two enormously talented men, Fred Bung and Otho Starter. Their partnership thrived from the very start, and there is no telling to what heights they might have risen had they not split up over a silly argument. It seems that Bung was a firm believer in reincarnation; Starter was just as firm a disbeliever. Bung insisted so violently on the truth of reincarnation and Starter scoffed so positively that they finally decided to go their separate ways. Singly, alas, the two fared badly. Starter gave up business altogether, joined the army, and was killed at San Juan Hill in 1898. He is today buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Bung drifted from job to job until he died of breakbone fever in Elizabeth, N. J., in 1902. He is today a llama in Uruguay.)

SHULTON New York • Toronto

On The Level

by Dick Sincoff

• A TALL, QUIET, mountainous lad from Swoyersville, Pa., began his fourth straight year as a first-string varsity player in the Colonials' opening basketball match against Wake Forest last week.

As a freshman, he was young and strong and had a knack for pouring in points. That year he made the All-Conference first team. Improving on his scoring ability and polishing his few rough edges, he soon became a name warranting automatic recognition. His deeds were conversation pieces and his value to the team unquestioned.

Now, Joe Holup—Big Joe—is a senior, captain of basketball, and candidate for All-American. He has remained the quiet, modest young man that he was. A tribute to Joe is that he attracts the fans who not only appreciate his talents, but who simply like to watch him in action, playing superb, earnest basketball.

Captain Joe Holup is a team man; he passes off, handles the ball, applies himself wholeheartedly to defense around and under the basket, and will fight six tigers to help G. W. win a ball game. Perception of court situations he abounds in, and the attendant rapid thinking is satisfying to notice.

I feel that we are fortunate to have this young man on our team, for he is truly a champion who embodies all the attributes, and then some, of an All-American.

Big Joe's starting teammates are George Klein, Joe Petcavich, Jay Manning and Bill Telasky. Together these five functioned smoothly and coolly. Only Manning and Telasky were not starters last winter. It was not because of Jay's inability that he didn't start; it was because of Corky Devlin and Buzz Ciriello.

Look for Manning as the "comer" this year. We caught a preview of what was to come near the end of last season, and now we have the Manning feature attraction. Like all the Colonials, the Jaybird is a dead-eye from the foul line. He also has a soft, pusher shot, and he's hungry for rebounds.

Telasky, breaking in as a freshman, looks like he's going to be tough to keep out. Bill handled himself well and showed hustle and smartness in his first intercollegiate event. From his looks now, I can't wait til Bill is a junior. Surprising to some, but what I've been expecting for a long time, was Klein's outburst of 20 points. George now seems ready to add scoring to his already excellent reputation as a floor leader. With Joe Pet to complete this quintet, I am even more at ease about our court future. Pet's easy hook is worth seeing, and you have to see him go up for a ball off the boards. Petcavich adds just the right zest to Reinhardt's tasty concoction.

SIDE NOTES: G. W. hit 66.5% of its field goal attempts and 73.9% of its foul shots . . . It was one of the most foul-punctured games ever seen in the area . . . Wake Forest coach Bones McKinny was a show in himself in the last 10 minutes.

Football Team Given Award With Banquet

• COACH BO SHERMAN predicted that the Colonials will have another winning team next year to highlight a banquet given by the Colonials, Inc., to the G. W. Football team last Wednesday night.

The team previously had voted on two awards. Mike Sommer was presented with a watch by Colonials, Inc. as the outstanding leader of the season. Captain Dick Gasperi received the Tuffy Leemans Trophy for the outstanding senior player. The team also elected End Paul Thompson and Fullback Bo Austin as next year's Co-Captains.

Other speakers were Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, President of the University; Max Farrington, Assistant to the President; J. Foster Hagan, donor of the Leemans Trophy, and Tuffy Leemans, former Colonial and New York Giant gridiron star.

Sailing Team Finishes Third

• THE GEORGE WASHINGTON Sailing Association placed third in the annual Frostbite Regatta, December 3-4 at the Corinthian Yacht Club.

Sailing for the University were George Collins, Rick Davies, Tony Wells and Pat O'Connell. Led by Collins, the Colonials just missed winning the regatta by five points. The winning school was Cornell. Some of the other schools participating were M. I. T., Stevens Institute, Maryland and Catholic University.

Besides the sailing, the week end was topped off by the well attended Frostbite Ball. This year the dance, which was sponsored by the Georgetown Sailing Association, was held in the Washington Canoe Club. The Collegians supplied the music. A dinner was held before the dance at Bonat's, honoring the visiting schools. About 140 people attended the ball and the dinner.

Phi Alpha Wins 33-0 On Kushner's Passing

by Chris McAvoy

• A FINE Intramural touch-football season ended on Sunday, as Phi Alpha exhibited its offensive power in crushing the Deltas 33-0 in the Championship game. SAE took the Consolation game from PIKA 6-0.

The pinpoint passing of Herb Kushner to Ardie Baker and Warren Danick gave Phi Alpha a 20-0 lead at halftime. The first touchdown was set-up on a 34-yard pass from Kushner to Danick, and Baker scored on a Kushner pass in the next series of downs. The same combination figured in the second score, as Danick took the ball away from Delt defenders for a 30-yard gain, setting up the pay-off pitch to Baker. Danick caught a pass for the extra point.

Baker Scores

West and Baker were the receivers in the final touchdown drive of the first half, with Baker tallying on a six-yard pitch. A Kushner to West aerial provided the extra point.

The Deltas moved for two first downs early in the first quarter in their only sustained offensive drive. Tom Smith and Sandy Schlemmer were moving the ball well until the Phi Alpha defense stiffened.

The second half produced two more TD's for Phi Alpha, via the aerial route as Baker snared Kushner tosses for both scores. Danick, once again, made sparkling catches to set up both scores. West scored the final point of the game on a pass from Kushner.

By this convincing win, Phi Alpha, for the second straight year, is the undisputed Champion in Intramural touch football. Baker's five touchdowns in a Championship game are an Intramural record, and he qualifies as the outstanding back in the league. The defensive line checked the Deltas, usually strong running game, and the secondary had the Delt receivers blanketed all afternoon.

Screen Pass

SAE took the measure of PIKA in the consolation game 6-0, as Cecil Charles withstood the buffeting of the PIKA defense to score on a screen pass from Chris Cato. The offensive thrusts of both teams were frustrated by interceptions as SAE picked off 9 PIKA aeriels, and Warren Lytle personally nabbed three SAE tosses.

A vote of thanks should go to the officials who did a generally fine job of whistle-tooting throughout the touch football season. The officials are all majoring in Physical Education, and their work in officiating is the laboratory requirements for P. E. 109, a course in Intramural administration.

Colonial Five Starts Play By Beating Wake Forest

by Paul Welch

• THE COLONIAL HOOPSTERS opened the season last Friday night at Uline Arena victoriously as the Colonials defeated the Wake Forest Deacons in a game marked by fouls, 101-86. The Buff made the Deacons take notice early as they sped to a 10-2 lead in the first three minutes on accurate shooting from the floor. The Colonials increased their lead to 28-17 at the twelve minute mark with Jay Manning and George Klein scoring eight apiece and never were headed for the rest of the game.

Captain Joe Holup, an All-American choice in Parade and Sport magazines, then started to hit, getting six out of eight field goals attempts to help spur the Colonials to a 41-27 lead. With sixteen minutes gone in the half, Coach Bill Reinhart put in Ronald Drearden, a freshman, and sophomore Jack Jolly as the Colonials led at half time, 49-31.

Joe Holup then started the second half off with a bang, scoring six straight points to push the Colonials ahead with five minutes gone to a 61-41 lead. After a discussion with their coach, Bob Greason and their colorful assistant Bones McKinley, the Deacons started using a full-court press. At this point, the Colonials had three inexperienced men in the game, Goodwin, Drearden and Jolly along with Holup and Klein. The full-court press bothered the ball handling of the Buff but the continuous fouling of the Deacons gave the Colonials a 73-55 lead with 11:15 gone. It was at this point that the players started to leave the game on fouls, the first man Joe Petcavich, and followed by five of the Deacons during the remainder of the game.

The Colonials, in topping the century mark in the first game this year as compared with only two games last year, dropped in 56.5 field-goal attempts and 73.9 of the foul attempts to keep up the reputation of a sharp shooting club that it has attained the past few years. Joe Holup, high man for the night with 35 points, dropped in ten out of twelve shots from the floor and also grabbed off 19 rebounds.

Three other Colonials reached double figures, George Klein being second highest with 20 points, Jay Manning scoring 16 and Joe Petcavich dropping in 11.

The Buff and Blue will travel this week, playing two away games. The first one is with William & Mary in Williamsburg December 6, and then they will journey to Philadelphia to meet St. Joseph on December 9. The next home game is December 13 with West Virginia.
